COPIES OF THE WORLD WERE PAPER IN AMERICA ON ONE DAY.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY NOVEMBER 10, 1893,

PRICE ONE CENT.

629,176 Copies of The World were sold Wednesday, Nov. 8. THE NEW REPUBLICAN BANNER.

More than were ever before issued by any newspaper in America on one Day.

IT'S A THRILLING TALE

Official Report of the Burning of the Alexandria.

Fire Broke Out All Over the Vessel

The Ward line steamer Seneca arrived at he pler, No. 7 East River, at awaited her arrival, as the captain and scend into the engine-room, which at A large crowd of people anxiously survivors of the steamer City of Alexandria, which was burned near Havana ray gallantly went below and started on Nov. 1, were on board.

Commodore Hughes, of the Ward line was at the pier and refused to allow re Matthew Cole, who lives at 904 First porters to go near the vessel.

him until he gives me his official state-

The Commodore kept his word, for every one connected with the ship obany questions. Chief Stewrd William Strohmeyer was one of the first to leave the dock. He hurried over to the company's offices at 113 Wall street. A minute later his wife and daughter rushed into the office and smothered him heard to say:

high. The captain was the last to leave the ships He and I were on the raft, as all the boats had gone."

The steward then went out of the office. He refused to say anything to the reporters who were in waiting.

Meanwhile Capt. Hoffman was closeted with Mr. Hughes, who gave out the following statement shortly after noon:

The City of Alexandria left Matanzas at 3.30 P. M. Nov. 1, after discharging her cargo and taking on board what cargo there was for the return voyage. She was bound for Havana to load there for New York, from where she was to have left at 6 P. M. on the 2d. miles from Mantanzas, while the captain | the arrest of five seamen. was at his dinner, an explosion took

table and threw him on the floor colored stevedores, who were sitting on the forward hatch eating their supper, were thrown up in the air and all fell back into the hold, from where seven were rescued by the crew. "At the time of the explosion the chief officer was in charge of the ship, on the bridge, and the first assistant engineer the Toole poisoning mystery has only was on watch in the engine room. The added to the complications. first assistant engineer's bands and arms are badly burnt and he is somewhat Stephen Toole, aged thirty-one, and ing that the fire was uncontrollable, after everything had been done in an endeavor to discover the cause of the fire, he decided to beach the ship on the reef near Juruca, about thirteen miles from Havana and two miles from the Immediately the ship "After the boats were lowered No. 1

unfortunately capsized, with the purser in command, but all got back to it but left the ship, with the chief officer, chief engineer, second purser, two stewards as soon as it was let go, was struck off and the oller drowned. His body They were den, quartermaster; William Foster, oller; Louis Block and George Smith, waiters, and six of the colored steve-gas, one of whom was burned in the Co., 86 & 88 Bowery, cor. Hesterst.

ship, and could not be reached notwithstanding the efforts made to do so.

"Capt. Hoffman and officers are unable in any way to account for the explosion. Owing to a heavy norther hav-ing prevailed for about four days a heavy sea was running, which made the saving of the ship and crew more diffi-

"Capt. Hoffman desires to express his thanks to his officers and crew for their efforts to aid nim and for the excellent discipline maintained."

A letter was received to-day from Frederick De Zaldo, the Company's agent at Havana. Among other things Stevedores Blown Into the Air by the Governor down. They all agree in saying that the behavior of Capt. Horr-Capt. Hoffman by every one here from man, under such trying circumstances, and the saving of ninety out of one hundred persons, was admirable work." Besides Capt. Hoffman, the Senera brought fifty-seven of the City of Alexandria's crew.

Peter Murray, the first assistant engineer, had both hands swathed in bandages. He was removed to his home, 38

After the explosion, Murray was or dered by Chief Engineer Lynch to dethe time was cut off by flames. Mur-avenue, was a cadet in the engine ers' "I will interview Capt. Hoffman and department, He was severely burned the crew myself," said Mr. Hughes, "and about the face, and now lies between won't allow any reporter to speak to tile and death in a hospital at Havana. The bodies of William Foster, oiler, were buried in the cometery at Hayana A pathetic story is related of one of served the instructions given to them of the negro stevedore, named Mateo. He keeping their mouths closed when asked was imprisoned by the flames in the forward part of the ship and appealed to the captain, who was on the bridge, to shoot him.

The captain directed Quarter-master Linden to heave the lead line to the man, but before this could be done another explosion occurred, and the forecastle collapsed, burying the unfortu-

All the members of the crew are loud one time I thought I would never see in Havana. The proprietors of the you again. Why, the sea ran mountains | Havana. The proprietors by their doors to the shipwrecked men and supplies of clothing were freely furnished by prominent residents.

The officers of the Ward line were busy paying off the shipwrecked men this morning and will see that they do not suffer as a result of the catastrophe.

SENECA SAILORS ARRESTED.

Accused of Breaching the Liquor Locker on the Voyage.

Deputy United States Marshals Grant and Solomon boarded the steamer Seneca at Quarantine this morning from the tow-"At 5.40 P. M., about twenty-eight United States Commissioner Shields for was at his dinner, an explosion took place all over the ship at one time—all hatches being blown off, skylights blown up and sent through the awnings, and the ship was found to be on tire in all the holds.

"The explosion was so strong that it lifted the captain from his seat at the li The five men were taken before

MARY TOOLE DISCHARGED.

Her Brothers Held for the Poisoning of their Mother and Stater.

BOSTON, Nov. 10.-Investigation into

This forenoon Mary Toole, aged thirty, burnt about the face, but not otherwise Michael Toole, twenty-one years old, seriously hurt.

On finding the vessel was after the captain ordered the engines stopped, so as to decrease the draft, and endeavored had been submitted, but the two sons to get control of the flames, but on findwere arraigned charged with the murder

HOOKER'S TRIAL POSTPONED. He Is Charged with Killing a Post-Office Clerk. tephen A. Hooker, colored, of 225 West grounded boats were launched and Twenty-seventh street, who is alleged efforts were made to save all hands, and to have murdered John Dozier, a colored according to the report of both the cap- Post-Office stamp clerk, on Aug. 16 last, tain and officers, the most perfect order was called to the bar in Part 1. of the General Sessions to-day for trial the request of Assistant District-Attorney Osborne the trial was postponed. No date was fixed.

The trial of Toussaint L. Vogelsang and Martha E. Pell, both colored, who were jointly indicted with Hooker, for conspiring to kill Dozier, was also pu

FIGHT AT PERNAMBUCO.

Folice Have an Encounter with Sold ers There.

Steamer Paracuse, Capt. Thomas, ar-

BUCKI IS AMAZED. $30,000 BAIL FOR ENO.

Wonders that He Did Not Throw The Ex-Bank President Furnishes His Mother-in-Law Out,

He Says He Visited the Club-House He Was Rearresled Last Night on to Please Mrs. Bucki.

"The greatest praise is given to No Light Thrown Upon the Size of

of the Supreme Court Circuit.

manifested by those who had heard yes- afternoon. terday what a terrible fellow William,

"She did."
The same day Mr. Bucki saw Mothern-law Eckman, and in answer to some emark she made about his mother said:
"If you talk that way I shall cut the able-cloth between us."
"What did you mean by cutting the Local News in Prief.

Samuel Althau, of 3B Pitt street, was held in the Tombs Court to-day, for stream of the Low of the meaning of the law.

"My san ild not strike his wife. He only but his hard over her mouth and told her not to talk so to me. She had inst said that she was mistress of the house and desired me to leave it."

Boy's double breasted Soil. Cape Overcoat. After a good double breasted Soil. Cape Overcoat. Extra pants. Cap and Sik Tie. entire outtit for six and matter of the street.

Boy's double breasted Soil. Cape Overcoat. Six 49 at the London & Liventroot. Closured. Will prove interesting when transposed, will prove interesting when transposed, will prove interesting when transposed, will prove interesting when transposed was smalled to the meaning of the law.

INJUNCTION APPLIED FOR.

Counsellor States for three years. Neither has he ever been placed on trial or his liberty jeopardized within the meaning of the law.

INJUNCTION APPLIED FOR.

Counsellor States for three years neither has he ever been placed on trial or his liberty jeopardized within the meaning of the law.

INJUNCTION APPLIED FOR.

Counsellor States for three years neither has he ever been placed on the liberty jeopardized within the meaning of the law.

INJUNCTION APPLIED FOR.

Counsellor States for three years neither has he ever been placed on the liberty jeopardized within the meaning of the law.

INJUNCTION APPLIED FOR.

Counsellor States for three years neither has he ever been placed within the meaning of the law.

INJUNCTION APPLIED FOR.

Counsellor States for three years neither has he ever been placed within the meaning of the law.

INJUNCTION APPLIED FOR.

Counsellor States for three years neither has he ever been placed within the meaning of the law.

INJUNCTION APPLIED FOR.

Counsellor States for three within the treatment the the charge was simply on a par with the treatment the three three was simply on a par with the treatment the health of the meaning of the law.

INJUNCTION APPLIED FOR.

INJUNCTION APPLIED FOR.

New Bondamen.

by Mrs. Hattle Eckman Buckl against and National Bank, who fied to Canada her husband, Charles L. Bucki, the in 1884, after wrecking that institution, wealthy vice-president of the Yellow and who returned last February and Lumber Company, was continued succeeded in having his indictment for to-day before Judge Ingraham in Part I. defalcation quashed, was rearrested last night, and was arriagned before There was a good deal of curlosity United States Commissioner Shields this

There was a good deal of curlosity manifested by those who had heard yesterday what a terrible fellow William, the butter, was to get a glimpse of that individual. William come into court just after his manifered to be stand in the terrible aspect, with a physical development commensurate with the task of bouncing Mrs. Bucki's family whenever they called, were greatly disappointed. William is a mild-mannered fellow, with a prediction for holding his hand. His appearance went far towards contradicting Mrs. Bucki's statement on the stand yesterday, that he was a man to be "mortally afraid" of.

Mr. Bucki's direct examination was continued by Lawyer McCurly. Witness was asked as to the allogation a party of friends got drunk at a dance in Hodgeson Hail, on Forty-fifth street. "Well, as to that," said Mr. Bucki, "at my wife's request I gave a little dinner to twenty-four people at my house, 115 West Seventy-second street, and afterwards had a dance at Hodgeson Hail. All the drinking that was "Was there any when at the hail."

"I think there were tiree bottles drunk among the whole crowd, My wife and I went home in a carriage with Mr. Hummerslough, had expressed a desire to went to be used. The proposition of the band so their qualifications.

The new complaint alleges practically the same facts as contained in the original indivers new alegations resulted in the original indivers new alegations reduced to stablish the crime of miss, propriation of the bank's funds. It had been intended to arraign Eno at 10 o'clock, but Col. Bliss sent a message to Mr. Mot tool. Mils age to Mr. Mot tool. His and tool clock, but Col. Bliss sent a message to Mr. Mot tool that hour whole tools age to Mr. Mot tool thank would have mould have a differed to the hall of the hall and the drinking that was granted.

The new companied the stand to clock, but Col. Bliss sent a message to Mr. Mot tool to the bank's funds. It had been intended to arraign Eno at 10 o'clock, but Col. Bliss sent a message to Mr. Mot tool that have a different to th The new complaint alleges practically tions, it is said, to make the arrest, if possible early in the day, so as to give the prisoner an opportunity to procure bondsmen. The deputies did not succeed in finding him, however, until the time mentioned.

Eno had evidently anticipated his arrest. He neither exhibited nor expressed surprise when the deputies stepped up to him and in an apologetic way told him who they were and showed their warrant.

Building and resides with his father, a wealthy retired merchant, at 21 West Fiftieth street, is very busy explaining to his friends to-day that he isn't married.

Last Tuesday evening Mr. Levy received a note from Miss Giles Gamble Isabelle McClenahan, a former pupil of his, reading:

"What did you mean by cutting the lable-cloth?"

I meant that the relations between the families would be broken off completely."

"Do you think it strange that you did not throw your mother-in-law out of the window the ""

"Yes, I do, considering the language she used."

"Are you in the habit of throwing old ladies out of the window."

"Now, don't be frivolous, Mr. Fox, interrupted Judge Ingraham.

Lawyer McCurdy was unsuccessful in his attempt to make Mr. Buck! all what his income is. As busines was now he couldn't really say how much he realized from his business.

To Lawyer Fox Mr. Bucki admitted that he owned 700 shares of the preferred stock and 250 shares of the common stock in the Yellow Pine Company, which was capitalized at $2,500,000, with shares at $100 each.

He received a salary of $200 a month as a director of the Company, of which he is also vice-president. "I had to borrow $100,000 last year personally." concluded Mr. Bucki.

"Why do you gamble, Mr. Buckies as director of the Company, of which he is also vice-president. "I had to borrow $100,000 last year personally." concluded Mr. Bucki.

"Why do you gamble, Mr. Buckies and it is to the Pennsylvania Club at Long Branch when he formed one of the party that played roulette for 19-cells.

The visit, according to Mr. Hirsch, was only to satisfy the curiosity of the ladies, who wanted to see how the Club at Long Branch when he formed one of the party that played roulette for 19-cells.

The visit, according to Mr. Hirsch, was only to satisfy the curiosity of the ladies, who wanted to see how the Club at Long Branch when he formed one of the party that played roulette for 19-cells.

The visit, according to Mr. Hirsch, was only to satisfy the curiosity of the ladies, who wanted to see how the Club was run.

Mr. McCurdy then asked the witness about the dance at Hodgeman Hail, Forty-difft street and Fifth avenue when he ead Mr. and Mrs. Bucki went home in a cab, and sand sand the total content and the prisoner to the content of the content of the conten

Mr. McCurdy then asked the witness about the dance at Hodgeman Hall. Forty-fifth street and Flith avenue, when he and Mr and Mrs. Rucki went home in a cab, and sang all the way. They were not intoxicated, he said, more than neonic generally were after a good dinner and a dance.

Nobody's feet, he said, hung out of the cab window on that occasion.

Mr. Hirsch is connected with the Yellow Pine Company, but he could not Mrs. Hirsch is connected with the Yellow Pine Company, but he could not Mrs. Hirsch is connected with the Yellow Pine Company, but he could not Mrs. Hirsch is connected with the Yellow Pine Company, but he could not Mrs. Hirsch is connected with the Yellow Pine Company, but he could not Mrs. Hirsch is connected with the Yellow Pine Company of the Company of Mrs. Hiscock contended that the indictment for forgery in General Sessions and gave the United States Grand Jury was shed any light on the question of Mrs. Hiscock contended that the indictment for forgery in General Sessions and gave to the Called States States Court.

The original indictment for forgery in General Sessions and gave to the Called States States Court.

The original indictment for forgery in General Sessions and gave to the Called States States Court.

The original indictment for forgery in General Sessions and gave to the Called States States Court.

The original indictment for forgery in General Sessions and gave to the Called States States Court.

The original indictment for forgery in General Sessions and gave to the Called States States Court.

The original indictment for forgery in General Sessions and gave to the Called States States Court.

The original indictment for forgery in General Sessions and gave to the Called States States Court.

The original indictment returned by the United States Senator.

The original indictment for forgery in General Sessions and gave in the way.

The original indictment returned by the United States Court.

The original indictment returned by the United States District Allows of the Called afterwards

d off three times before the sey got to Bacuranao, and from
sey got to Bacuranao, and from as y got to Bacuranao, and from some solities and the Port in Havana to send a to save the other boats that had got ashore. While walking along Cohimar, in the morning, they saw it tug Susie take up boat No. 4, with ome twenty-four men.

"The authorities and the people on shore received them kindly and did
shore received them kindly and did
shore received them kindly and did shore waiting to see how the flight at the first and the people on will clebrate the "landside"
ward, Brooking, will celebrate the "landside" to the first in the importance of the Technical States for three
ward, Brooking, will celebrate the "landside" to the first in the superior of the Technical States for three
ward, Brooking, will celebrate the "landside"
to the power to recover
ward, Brooking, will celebrate the "landside"
to the first in the superior of the Technical
ward, Brooking, will celebrate the "landside"
to the first in the superior of the Technical
ward, Brooking, will celebrate the "landside"
to the first in the superior of the Technical
ward, Brooking, will celebrate the "landside"
to the first in the superior of the Technical
ward, Brooking, will celebrate the "landside"
to the first in the superior of the Technical
ward, Brooking, will celebrate the "landside"
to the first in the superior of the Technical
ward, Brooking, will celebrate the "landside"
to the superior of the Technical ward, Brooking, Ward,

A post-election surprise for Harrison and Reed.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY JR - OF OHIO

The Artist Denies Miss McClenahan's Soft Impeachment.

She Warned Him Before She Published a Marriage Notice.

who has a studio in the Sherwood Studio tage Carpenter charged with As-burg to-day, to await examination on a harge of assaulting his wife. Hat schild said in court that the charge ages simply on a par with the traument to had received all alons.

"Look how shabily I am dressed," to said. "and then gaze at the style of look."

MR. LEVY SAYS HE'S SINGLE. WITNESS LOCKED UP, EDWARD KELLY'S SURPRISE.

Justice Lawrence Charged Thomas M. Fleming with Perjury.

He Gave Contradictory Evidence About the Ownership of a Saloon.

Justice Lawrence, of the Supreme set in society to talking.

It appeared that Fleming, who has while Fleming was on the winese daw in Carly salit.

The oily was existed the self that is self and in the self that is certainly the most charitals self that is certainly the most charitals while the self that is certainly the most charitals and self that is certainly the most charitals. McClena, that was compelled to dismiss her become of her inwelvence attentions. Since the pulled There was never anything in the classes of the cause of her inwelvence attentions. Since the pulled There was never anything in the pulled There was never anything the partitioned.

Justice Fratt Decides that Lasak's Extate Must Re Partitioned.

Justice Fratt Decides that Lasak's Extate Must Re Partitioned.

Justice Fratt Decides that Lasak's Extate Must Re Partitioned.

Justice Fratt Decides that Lasak's Extate Must Re Partitioned.

Justice Fratt Decides that Lasak's Extate Must Re Partitioned.

Justice Fratt Decides that Lasak's Extate Must Re Partitioned.

Justice Fratt Decides that Lasak's Extate Must Re Partitioned.

Justice Fratt Decides that Lasak's Extate Must Re Partitioned.

Justice Fratt Decides that Lasak's Extate Must Re Partitioned.

Justice Fratt Decides that Lasak's Extreme

SHIPPING NEWS.

ARRIVER William Hauschild, stage carpenier at the Germania Theatre in this city, was stated in the Lee Avenue Court, Williams and the first bloomers, the state of assaulting his wife.

Hat schild said in court their the charge that simply on a par with the treatment.

Few Knew He Was Married,

Though He Has a Family.

"The Evening World,"

son of Eugene Kelly, and one of his Arrested on the Witness Stand and partners in the Exchange Place banking Comstock, Butler and others. The genhouse, has been dissembling among his bachelor friends and in clubdom for these many years, and that he is a bene-

Although Mr. Kelly's friends quite genof Thomas M. Fleming this morning crally supposed that the member of the To think the only coarse in the coarse in th of whickey worth $160 from W. E. Poggi, tel, where they are served by two at-

His Bahalf. Harry Jarvis, who yesterday pleaded

Sensational Defense Will Be Made in the Upington Suit.

Officials Who Protected Policy Dealers to Be Exposed.

Bismarc k's " Lawyer Promises to Explode Several Bombs,

The action of George P. Upington to recover $48,000 from John Keenan for Keenan has decided to let out the whole business about the protection that is alleged to have been accorded by William A. Butler, ex-County Clerk, who caused the difficulty in court 'yes-terday, was examined briefly for the plaintiff. He said that Upington, Com-missioner of Jurors Caulfield and Keenan were always together and on the closest terms in 1881 and 1882. On cross-examination by Lawyer Root he denied that he owes the county money not paid over while he was County Clerk. Col. Bliss then began the opening address of the defense. He said that at the first trial they had been feeling their way carefully, and did not earn the full cirhad done business with Upington, moved by a sense of justice, had told them the inside features of the case. They intended to go into these features fully at this trial.

He said that Upington had conceived a great scheme to bring all the lottery; and policy business of the city under one tral office at 593 Broadway. Uppington had claimed to have pro-tection, and it was this which should sulted "Eph" Simmons, the lottery man and "Eph" had decided to try what if any influence he had. "Eph" had taken rear offices at 198 Broadway, and Uppington had the front office, hTey arranged with policy-dealers about the city so that "books" were sent from the main office telling of the numbers drawn. He claimed to Simmons to have protection from Anthony eral office was to get 12 1-2 per cent.

After awhile Simmons came to the onclusion that Upington did not have all the protection he pretended and Simmons moved out and said nothing about it to Upington. Simmons had been p ng $100 a week to Upington.

BLATCHFORD INVESTIGATING.

Moncton's Case.

of whiskey worth $160 from W. E. Poggi, tel, where they are served by two attentive mains, and are living in a style peared a notice of the marriage of Mr. Levy and Miss Mctlenahan Nov. 8, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. Levy promptly sent a note to the newspaper denying that he was married, and has since then been busy making the same denial to his friends.

To an "Evening World" reporter today Mr. Levy sabit.

"The only way I can explain Miss Meclenahan's action it hat she is insane.

That is certainly the most charitable of whiskey worth $160 from W. E. Poggi, tel, where they are served by two attentive mains, and are living in a style bentting their station in society, their wealth and their refinement.

The windows of apartment No. 288

Moncton's Case.

Deputy Surveyor Blatchford positively refused to give and information whatevealth and their refinement.

The windows of apartment No. 288

The windows of apartment No. 288

White Fleming was on the winners on this morning.

White Fleming was on the winners wife that it is he and not his than the seld that it is he and not his the coursel presented the copy of his tentive mains, and are living in a style bentting their station in society, their wealth and their refinement.

The windows of apartment No. 288

The windows of apartment No. 288

The windows of a partor and two sleeping-rooms. It casts Mr. Ed.

White Fleming was on the winners will kelly from $150 to $200 a week to the the course of the windows of apartment No. 288

White Fleming was on the winners of the windows of apartment No. 288

White Fleming was on the winners of the windows of apartment No. 288

White Fleming was on the winners of the windows of apartment No. 288

The consists of a partor and two sleeping-rooms. It casts Mr. Ed.

White Fleming was on the winners of the windows of apartment No. 288

The windows of apartment No. 288

The windows of apartment No. 288

White Fleming was on the winners of the windows of apartment No. 288

The windows of apartment No. 288

The windows o

TWO YEARS FOR A BIGAMIST.

January Two Wives Interceded in His Bahalf.

His Bahalf.

GUILTY OF ARSON.

France Oct. 14 with 521 over- Punitelitizery for two years by Recorder A Jury Decides that Polleka Set the Fire.

The trial of Leopold Poliake for arson in the first degree in setting fire to his tailor stere at 739 Bedford avenue on the night of Sept. 22, while thirty people we ensleep in the house, was concluded that morning. The jury found him suilty and he was remanded for sentence.

with follows: Pair: sightly cooler; northeasteris and kicked her husband. Juhn, last although the morning hours, as indicated by the thermometer at Perry's harming:

Butty alrest. She is forty five years old and musc cular. The complaint sgathet her is that she active beat and kicked her husband. Juhn, last night.

The following record shows the changes in the sight.

Marvellous fuel. Sestaint, the only one of its a hazardous understaint with compressed air without releasing the brakes, and in the market. Send for cutalogue to United Span a load, steep grade. A secondal test form make.

KEENAN TO SQUEAL.